On January 19, 2018, approximately at 12:20 pm, Temple Station Deputies contacted an individual for several vehicle violations while he rode his bicycle at Sastre Avenue and Garvey, in the city of Rosemead. Upon contact, the individual became combative and physical altercation ensued while trying to detain him. After assisting deputy personnel arrived at the location, the individual was subdued and a knife was recovered from his possession. One of the Temple Station Deputies fractured his hand during the physical altercation, however, he is receiving treatment. The case is being handled by Temple Stations Detective Bureau. The individual was charged with Corporal Injury to a Peace Officer.
